

Planning Date Night

The Engagement Game! Planning Details & Ideas

Instructions: Grab a pen and take turns asking each other the questions below. Jot down your partner's answers and see how well you know each other's wedding preferences!

- What three colors would you like to incorporate into the décor?

- What is your preferred choice for dinner service: family style, stationed, buffet, or plated?

- What signature cocktail would you like to serve?

- What is your favorite type of flower to include in the wedding bouquet or boutonniere?

- What type of music would you like to play at the ceremony?

- What song is on your “do not play” list at the reception?

- What do you want the dress code to be in the wedding?

- If you could pick any destination for the honeymoon, where would you go?

- What type of wedding favor would you like to give your guests, if any?

- What is one unique element you'd like to incorporate into the ceremony or reception?

- What song would you like for your first dance?

- What type of photography do you prefer: traditional posed shots or candid, documentary-style photos?

- What is the most important aspect of the wedding day for you, apart from marrying your best friend?

- Do you want to do a “First Look,” where you see your partner before the ceremony?

- Do you want to do a “Grand Exit” at the end of the night?

After answering all the questions, discuss your answers with each other, and see how your preferences align or differ. Use this as an opportunity to learn more about each other's wedding dreams and continue planning your perfect day together!
